POLICY PROCEDURES AND PENALTIES ON LATE PRESENTATIONS

1. To defer the due date for a presentation make an application in writing on the Application for Extension of Assessment Item form. See Deferral of Assessment Items Policy for full details.
2. Students should be aware that failing to meet the due date for a presentation without having made prior arrangements to defer the item may result in no mark for this item; with the result that the student will automatically fail the unit. See Late Assessment Item and Deferral of Assessment Item policies.
3. Where a student has been granted a deferral of a presentation (points 1 or 2 above), the presentation must be delivered no later than the extended date. In such cases, presentations will not be permitted, with the result the student will automatically fail the unit.
