PAYMENT DETAILS:

Students must either make full payment or complete a Request for FEE-HELP

Students may choose to pay their tuition fee upfront, defer the payment of their tuition fee through FEE-HELP (Australian Citizens only), or defer a portion through FEE-HELP and pay a portion upfront. FEE-HELP is a contingent loan which becomes repayable when a graduate earns a specified income level. Please consult the PBC's website: www.pbc.wa.edu.au or the Going To Uni website: www.goingtouni.gov.au. If you are choosing to defer all or part of your tuition fee through a FEE-HELP loan you MUST return a completed Request for FEE-HELP Assistance Form with this Enrolment Form. International students are not eligible for a FEE-HELP loan and should refer to the International Student Handbook.

I wish to pay my semester's tuition fees in the following way:

- I am paying my fees upfront.
- I wish to defer all my fees through FEE-HELP.
- I wish to defer a portion of my fees through FEE-HELP and pay a portion upfront.

FEE-HELP Amount: $

Upfront Amount: $

Is this the first time you have used FEE-HELP through PBC?:

- No Yes (my completed Request for FEE-HELP Assistance Form is attached)

For upfront tuition fees & payment of other fees please indicate below your preferred method of payment:

- Cash Cheque Credit Card Direct Debit

I confirm that I have understood my obligations to ensure all fees are paid as required, the relevant refund information and the requirement to submit a Change of Enrolment form to alter my enrolment, including withdrawal from units:
